Dear Mr. Casey:

I am writing to thank you for your comments concerning the "massive wave of immigration" spurred by communist takeovers in Central America. We at the Immigration and Naturalization Service know that what you say is absolutely possible and constitutes one of our worse case scenario.

With the Simpson/Mazzoli immigration reform package pending in the House of Representatives during the month of May, any efforts to better publicize the real potential for this kind of immigration emergency is most helpful. We appreciate your understanding and assistance in helping the American public better understand this danger.

Likewise, as we can be of assistance we are delighted to help. Your comments concerning Mexico are right on target. Thank you again for your comments which will allow the American public to understand this possible immigration emergency better.

Sincerely,

Greg Leo
